

It contains 15 data points covering the whole fiber orientation triangle (as in the work of Jonathan Köbler). The material is PBT reinforced by 30 wt.-% glass fibers (corresponding to 12.5 % fiber volume fraction). This dataset is for a fixed fiber volume fraction. The next step would be extending the interpolation to variations in volume fraction. I will provide you a new database for this case.